MISSION OVERSEAS PRAYERLINE Issued on Wednesday 22 June 2011

Day 1 – B.M.O. Rev. Cheryl Meban is succeeding Rev. John Hanna as Convener of B.M.O after 4 years in office, due to poor health for past year and has had surgery in Anlodelvin where he is making good progress. We pray for both of them now.

Days 12 to 14 – KENYA Rev Brian Gibson and wife made brief visit to Nairobi visiting Miss. friends where Jean, gathers information for her book. They return home 29th. Give thanks for all this. From Tuum, Stephen Cowan says: thanks for good rains last 2 wks. An earth tremor caused some bore holes to run dry thus showing need for life giving water supplies. Attendance has been good at adult education classes. At the PCEA Girls' Sec. school, nominations are sought for new Board of Governors. Due to Govt. policies, only people who have gone to Sec. school level can be considered but most are teachers, who are excluded from being on a school board. In Seren, the govt. recently helped by trucking water to the school and giving a water bowser for villagers but with bowser gone the problem remains. Sadly, a sense of 'dependence' has been created through short-term interventions. Julius remains in Seren, but Wanjiko has returned to Tuum for a short time. Pray for Julius sharing gospel with those around, the continuing challenges at the PCEA Girls' Sec. school and that right people will be found for Board of Governors. Pray for Uni. students, who seek to publicise problem of Varroa mites around Tuum. The Roulstons: Give thanks: That girls arrived safe and well. They drove to Pembroke for Joshua's 'Open Day weekend, where they were together as a family, 1st. since last Dec, healing of husband of a member of Linda's prayer group. He is much better and feeling stronger. Thanks that Dorrans have vehicle and camping equipment needed, for the 'Bridge of Hope, encouraging harvest for early July and decisions needed for next year's acreage be God's will, thankful that people are opening up. for Linda, as she speaks to teenagers in Nanyuki Sec. School, 21 from Drogheda and Gardenmore congs. is in Kambui, since 18th June, working with local PCEA congs. building and renovating physio clinic, a biogas pipeline and chicken house, they help to lead local Bible Club, they return 2nd July. Pray for all.

Pray for suitable places to be found for projects and especially for men to be motivated for the classes. Remember Edison Christian meetings with churches, groups and individuals.
